Hello Fellow DeKalb County Republicans,

Election Night 2021 was epic! Americans resoundingly rejected Sleepy Joe Biden and the tone-deaf Democrat Party's failed agenda of progressive education policies, government mandates, open borders and defunding the police. With all eyes on Virginia, Glenn Youngkin won BIG becoming the first Republican Governor since 2009. Winsome Sears became the first African American woman to be elected Lieutenant Governor and Jason Miyares became the first Latino Attorney General in the state's history. Six House of Delegate races were flipped giving Republicans a 52R-48D seat majority in the Virginia Legislature. To top it all off, the Atlanta Braves were crowned World Series Champions breaking a 26-year curse and made the likes of Stacey Abrams and Rob Manfred eat Jim Crow 2.0. As I shared in my Tweet that went viral:

"Congratulations @Braves," Marci McCarthy, GOP chairwoman in DeKalb County, wrote on Twitter. "Who needs the @MLB All-Star Game when you get to play in the World Series! #GoBraves"

At home in Georgia, conservatives across our state also won BIG on Election Night. In particular, we had victories in Albany, Dacula, Johns Creek, Sandy Springs, Jesup, Roswell and others. In DeKalb County, we also won BIG in Tucker. Congratulations to Mayor Frank Auman on his decisive victory – proving that Kitchen-Table Politics will prevail over Pie-in-the-Sky Socialism. Marci McCarthy, chairwoman of the DeKalb GOP, said her party's grassroots canvassing efforts in the suburbs have led conservatives to have a better idea what voters want. She said Tucker voters saw prominent Democrats pushing for Biro's election solely because he leans left, which she said backfired.

"I think the Democrats have lost their way and have lost touch with voters," McCarthy said. "It was a huge turnoff in the Tucker mayoral race when Robin Biro decided that he was going to run as a Democrat and was handpicked by chairman John Jackson of the DeKalb Democrats."

While we did not see all the candidate wins that we hoped for in DeKalb County, the #VoteDeKalbRed Road to Victory Program had a BIG impact delivering Real Results:
