

RE: Happy New Year 2022 from The DeKalb Republican Party

Dear <First Name>,

As Americans across the country gather tonight with family and friends, The DeKalb County Republican Party would like to wish everyone a happy and healthy New Year.

For many it is a time reflection as we mark the end of one year and welcome the beginning of another year. As Georgians on New Year's Eve 2021, we were hopeful that our two Senate Run Off Elections be victorious which would have held the majority in the U.S. and ultimately Saved America. At the same time in his New Year wishes, Brandon praised healthcare workers on the front lines and looked ahead to his prospects of delivering what he has promised will be a transformative first 100 days in office in terms of dealing with the coronavirus, the battered economy, global re-engagement by the US and taking action on the climate crisis. Fast forward to December 31, 2021 where Brandon not only broke every campaign promise, put America Last, he is a failed leader with too many dumpster fires to count. Brandon ends his inaugural year with a 57% DISAPPROVAL RATING. Not surprisingly, 67% of Democrats DO NOT want Brandon to run for reelection in 2024.

While 2021 was difficult for many Americans, we must also look back on this year with the knowledge that brighter days are ahead of us – that although our challenges are great, each of us has the courage and determination to rise up and meet them. Heading into 2022, Democrats finding themselves on their back foot to retain a slim majority. Whereas Republicans are increasingly bullish on the prospect of a red wave that could flip both chambers of Congress and end Democrats' unified control in Washington. In Georgia, we have an incredible opportunity to go hard on the offense to rid out the poison of the Progressives. We can build bridges with the Independents and widen our tent with all Republicans. This is not just a chance to defend our governorship in Georgia, it is historical point in time to retain our way of life and preserve our freedoms. As I said to USA Today in a recent interview, "no matter who the GOP nominee is next year, Stacey Abrams is the type of Democratic opponent who will unite all stripes of conservatives come next November."

It is that spirit that we ring in the new year, and it is that spirit that will energize us to ride the Red Wave in 2022. Let's work together to #VoteDeKalbRed and #KeepGARed! Happy New Year, everyone and have the time of our lives!

Warmest Regards,
